

WHAT'S NEW AT THE BRILLION PUBLIC LIBRARY

Veteran scrapbooks now at the Brillion Public Library

The Brillion Public Library has received the Veterans scrapbooks that were compiled by Al Buboltz. The books are available at the library for viewing during library hours. Stop in and see this treasure trove of local history.

“Read the Book, be the book” to take place at the Brillion Nature Center

It’s “all about Birds” for the next “Read the book, be the book” program Stop in at the library and read about birds. Then go to the Brillion Nature Center on Saturday, March 4th for an family program on Birds that features interactive stations. Program starts at 10:30 a.m. Go be the book!

Library to offer Estate Planning sessions

Davidson Law Office and The Estate Planning Group will be hosting a free educational program entitled, "Life and Legacy Planning," twice during the day on Wednesday, March 22nd at the Brillion Public Library, 326 N. Main Street, Brillion. The afternoon presentation will be held from 3:30-5:00 and the evening program will be held from 6:00-7:30.

Each of the events are open to the public and are being held as a community service for attendees to learn about available estate planning options and safeguards to put in place now to offer comprehensive protections and peace of mind. Topics that will be discussed include: wills, trusts, the probate process, estate taxes and powers of attorney.

Both events are free and open to the public. To reserve a seat today for either program, call 920-558-9300 or register directly at <http://www.theestateplanninggroup.com/event/brillion-library/>.

Library holding free health class for women

The Brillion Public Library will be hosting a free Women’s health class on “Bone Health.” The program is being presented by the Calumet County Health Department through the GrapeVine Project. Learn about signs and symptoms and how to reduce your risk. There will be screening recommendations as well. The program will take place on Tuesday, March 28th starting at 3 pm. Program is around an hour in length. Registration is preferred as there is information handouts and a free gift to attendees. To register contact the library at 920-756-3215.

Munch-a-Movies

The next Munch-a-Movies on Tuesday, March 7th will feature another Sentimental Reflections. Program starts at noon! Featured film includes the following: Cover Story: The story of time ; Scenic America: Lake Cumberland, Kentucky; On a Musical Note: Harmonica-Mania; Time Capsule: Newsreels of 1957; Off the beaten path: Harper's Ferry, West Virginia. Program ends with trivia.

Bring a lunch along to eat if you choose and enjoy coffee on the library. Schedules of weekly films are available at the library and on the website. Movies last around an hour. Make plans to join us!

Storytime to feature Free Play

The next Storytime at the Brillion Public Library will feature free play with a theme of "For the Birds." Enjoy a few stories about the birds and then take part in a variety of play activities with a theme of birds. Program dates are Monday, March 6th and Tuesday, March 7th. Programs take place at 6:30 pm on Mondays and 9:30 am on Tuesdays and is open to preschoolers through Kindergarten age youth. Make plans to join us!

Book Talking picks "The Passenger" for March

The March Book Talking selection is "The Passenger" by Lisa Lutz. This is a thriller about a woman who creates and sheds new identities as she crisscrosses the country to escape her past. The book will be discussed on Tuesday, March 28th at 1:30 pm. The program will repeat at West Haven on Thursday, March 30th at 1:30 pm. Copies of the book are available from the Library.

Library to offer Estate Planning sessions

Davidson Law Office and The Estate Planning Group will be hosting a free educational program entitled, "Life and Legacy Planning," twice during the day on Wednesday, March 22nd at the Brillion Public Library, 326 N. Main Street, Brillion. The afternoon presentation will be held from 3:30-5:00 and the evening program will be held from 6:00-7:30.

Each of the events are open to the public and are being held as a community service for attendees to learn about available estate planning options and safeguards to put in place now to offer comprehensive protections and peace of mind. Topics that will be discussed include: wills, trusts, the probate process, estate taxes and powers of attorney.

Both events are free and open to the public. To reserve a seat today for either program, call 920-558-9300 or register directly at <http://www.theestateplanninggroup.com/event/brillion-library/>.

Library adds new books to collection

The Brillion Public Library has added the following new books to its collection:

Kline, Christina Baker A piece of the world

Jenoff, Pam The Orphan's Tale

Patterson, James Humans Bow Down

Grippando, James Most Dangerous Place

Kalanithi, Paul When Breath becomes air

Ryan, Jennifer The Chillbury Ladies' Choir

Meyer, Stephenie The chemist

Peterson, Tracie Treasured Grace

Robb, J.D. Echoes in death

Kellerman, Faye Bone Box

Hechtman, Betty Gone with the wool (LARGE PRINT)

Crombie, Deborah Garden of Lamentations (LARGE PRINT)

Budewitz, Leslie Killing Thyme (LARGE PRINT)

Fleming, Melissa A Hope more powerful than the sea

Horowitz, Alexandra Being a dog (LARGE PRINT)

Reeder, Lydia Dust Bowl Girls (LARGE PRINT)

Bradforde, Laura Éclair and Present Danger (LARGE PRINT)

To check out or place a hold on any of the above titles, stop in at the Brillion Public Library or go online through the catalog found on the Library website and place your own hold.

Library hours

Regular hours are running at the Brillion Library. Hours are Mondays 8-8; Tuesdays 9-8; Wednesdays and Thursdays from 12-8pm; Fridays 12-6 pm and Saturdays from 9-12 am.