

WHAT'S NEW AT THE BRILLION PUBLIC LIBRARY

Library to hold activity time

Stop in at the Brillion Library on Saturday, Nov. 8th between 9 and 11:30 a.m. and create a take home craft and do some activities. The theme will be Thanksgiving. We are hoping to make pine cone turkeys as the take home craft.

Currently we are looking for the hard fan-type pine cones to use. If anyone has any extra of these type of pine cones, would you consider donating them to the library? Let us know if you have any questions by calling us at 920-756-3215.

Library to offer program on new devices and technology

What are the new technology devices out there? What device works best for me? What can the new devices do for me? What new technologies do I already have and don't know how to use? You are invited to find your answers to these questions on Wednesday, November 12th starting at 6:30 p.m. The Brillion Public Library will be holding a free program for the public on new devices and technology. It will feature Clark Curtis from Essential Technologies. He will share his knowledge on devices and bring along some of the new things that are out there. Make plans to join us and learn how technology can help you.

Library offers Halloween Storytime

The Brillion Library will be holding a special Halloween Storytime on Friday, October 31st starting at 3:30. Children are invited to come in costume and enjoy some Halloween stories and activities.

Storytime to feature Free Play

"Out to eat" will be the theme of the next Storytime and Free Play on Nov. 3rd and 4th. Program will feature Free Play activities along with Stories about eating. Storytime is open to all youth preschool through Kindergarten age. The library holds 2 weekly sessions: Monday evenings at 6:30 p.m. and Tuesday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Make plans to join us!

Library holds Mitten Tree

The Brillion Library will hold its annual Mitten Tree Project from now until December 6th. The public is invited to donate NEW mittens, gloves, caps, hats, scarves and other winter accessories for this project. Drop off your new items at the library during library hours by Saturday, December 6th. Donated items will be given to the needy of the Brillion area.

Legion books to grace Library

The Brillion Library will have the American Legion scrapbooks done by Al Buboltz on display for Veterans' Day. Stop in on Nov. 11th during Library hours and look through these scrapbooks. They highlight people from Brillion who served in the Military over the years.

Library offers ebook sessions

The Brillion Library offers device users the opportunity to receive help on their devices. They will also be shown how to check out and download books on their devices through Overdrive. Users are invited to bring their devices along to either of the 2 sessions offered monthly. November dates and times are Monday, Nov. 3rd from 2-4 p.m. and Thursday, Nov. 20th from 6-8 p.m. Call the library at 920-756-3215 if you have any questions.

Book Talking selects "The Recipe Box for November"

The November Book Talking selection at the Brillion Public Library is "The Recipe Box" by Sandra Lee. Grace Holm-D'Angelo is at her wit's end living in Los Angeles with her teen age daughter, Emma after her divorce. Then Grace's best friend, Leeza, succumbs to breast cancer and Grace realizes that you don't get a second chance at life. She returns to her hometown of New London, Wisconsin, to try to reconcile with her own mother, Lorraine. She rediscovers the healing power of cooking using a Recipe Box.
